TIPS TO HELP YOUR CHILD STAY SAFE

- Talk about who they play with and chat to.
- Encourage them to think before they click or share.
- Remind them: not everyone is who they say they are.
- Set boundaries around screen time and game time.
- Use parental controls and review settings together.
- Don't share personal info (name, address, school).
- Report and block anyone who makes them feel uncomfortable.
- Encourage them to tell you if something feels wrong.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- What games do you like playing on Roblox?
- Who do you play with?
- Have you ever felt uncomfortable in a game or chat?
- What would you do if a stranger asked for your personal info?
- Do you ever feel pressured to buy Robux or items?

RED FLAGS TO WATCH FOR

- Talking to strangers or "online friends" in private.
- Wanting to spend lots of Robux or real money.
- Getting upset when asked to stop playing.
- Secretive behaviour around Roblox.
- Bullying others or being bullied.
- Sharing personal information online.

QUICK DO'S & DON'TS

DO
- Encourage open conversations.
- Know their username and friends.
- Review privacy settings together.
- Use parental controls.
- Be a trusted place for help.

DON'T
- Don't spy or snoop.
- Don't overreact—listen first.
- Don't shame or blame.
- Don't ignore problems.
- Don't blame the game.
